

The presented work dissertates on evolution of the early Christianity in the period of years around 30-60 AD. It is focused on further explanation of the origin and evolution of the Christian faith as a result of lifetimes and activities of particular individuals. That is why the analysis of contribution of these individuals - Jesus of Nazareth and his followers, Stephan, James and Paul- is the key element of this work.