

This bachelor work is concerned with graffiti and street art. It is focused on these phenomenons, what they are for us, why they appeal and how they influence our culture in the space of graphic design, illustration and the other way around. I try to create my own street art and place it in public space, I show on example of my illustrated book how much I am influenced mysem.