

Summary:

The purpose of my bachelor's work was to explore all the possibilities offered by graphic programmable calculator TI-89 Titanium and to create a tabular guide to functions with my personal experiences added. I wanted to show good features and benefits of using this calculator, but also to mention potential flaws and troubles, which every user should mind when making his calculations.