

Diploma thesis is directed at art of 20th and beginning of 21st century and its application in art in primary school teaching. It is focused on transformation of art conceptions in all educational programmes from 1990. In practical part of thesis are probed pupils' attitudes to modern and postmodern art by empirical methods. According to favoured tendencies was designed a didactic project.