

The history of the Czech Diaspora settlement of Kazakhstan is the main topic of this thesis. It starts in the first half of the 19th century describing the Diaspora first move from the Czech lands through its temporary stay in Ukraine and Bessarabia till return of some of its descendants back to the Czech Republic. The procedure of resettlement has been described including the follow up integration process in the Czech Republic. Using the pooling questionnaire data has been collected and evaluated on reasons behind the exodus of Czech Diaspora from Kazakhstan as well as the quality of its reintegration into the Czech society.
