

This bachelor thesis deals with the structure and application of communist power on the district level. It is mainly focused on consolidation of the regime connected with propaganda, persecution of the population and a third resistance in the Sedlčany district between 1948 and 1953.