

The aim of this graduation thesis is to outline the history of the Krajir from the Kraig lineage in the Czech Kingdom from the end of the 14th century until the end of 15th century. The fundamental part of this thesis is to observe the most important moments which lead to the rise of the Krajir lineage in the second half of 15th century. In this period the Krajir lineage from Kraig is represented by Wolfgang from Kraig. Because of him the Krajir lineage become very important in Czech politics. The possibility to participate in the local municipalities was based upon their family funds.
