

Work is dedicated to assemblies of utaquists in Nymburk in years 1439, 1440 and 1444, especially in it's regional importance for the town. Firstly the work trise to discover th imporance of each participant of assembly in 1440 and their authority in county of Boleslav. This work tries to anwer the question where could these assemblies took place in Nymburk with use of archive materilas and literature and comparison with other towns, where took place similar assemblies.