

The thesis deals with the Jewish books of testaments which arose in Prague during the years 1681–1756 and 1740-1773 and are placed in Prague City Archives. Emphasis is given to last wills in the Jewish tradition, Jewish testamentary practice in the Czech lands and especially to the typological and contentual analysis of individual wills.