

ABSTRACT:

The topic of this bachelor work is education and its influence on quality of life of seniors. This work consist of four theoretical parts. The first chapter consist of information about quality of life and about the influences on quality of life. In the second chapter, I put my mind on characteristic of human aging, on its proces and effects and aspects of ageing. The third chapter gives basic information about lifelong learning and also equally on seniors prepare for retirement. The last fourth chapter describes geragogy as the art and science of teaching old people. This chpter also offers overview of educational oppurtunities for seniors. Also give information about possibility of education at Universities of the Third Age in Slovak Republic - condition for admission to study and also some activities and mission of Universities of the Third Age.