

In the present work the energy gap between low-lying singlet and triplet electronic states are studied using Brillouin-Wigner and Mukherjee multireference coupled cluster methods. The calculated energy gaps and vibration states are compared with experimental data of photoelectron spectra reported recently in [1].