Abstract

Topic: Project of Educational cycle trail in the protected landscape area in Iron Mountains

Goals: The goal of this work is realization project of Educational cycle train in the protected landscape area Iron Mountains. Production of informative prospectus, which should be offered in the Tourist Information Centers of the area.

Method: Field research, which includes personal mapping in the area and cooperation with the staff of information centers. The collection of information from the fields of cultural and natural heritage. Analysis of the maps and guides as the basis of making educational biking trail.

Results: Output material of this work is creating educational biking trail in the Protected landscape area Iron Mountain and its environs, which will be processed in the form of information brochure. According to a participator will be able to pass the route. The brochure containing texts, pictures and maps, is possible to offer information centers in the area and also present in electronic form on the internet.

Key words: biking, mapping, educational cycle trails, Iron Mountains, protected landscape area, cycling trail