

Every year the statistics show a rising number of delay of school entry in whole-state average. How is the situation in this region, what are the most frequent causes? Does the region provide enough possibilities of precaution, prevention and professional aid?