OVERALL ASSESSMENT (provided in English, Czech, or Slovak):

This paper is an example of an excellent Bachelor thesis. Author deals with the issue of gender disparities and introduces two innovative methodological approaches. Firstly, the depiction of order gender graph values in the graph to analyse the distribution of gender gaps. Secondly, the principle of quartiles to analyse the relations between the inequality stages. The methodology and analysis of data is good contribution to economic research in this field. This paper concludes with interesting results. Quality of written English is on very high level. Author also works with literature sources in a proper (academic) way. Charts and figures are well described.

I recommend a distinction from the Dean of the Faculty for this thesis.
