

This work focuses on activity of an educational adviser at primary schools.
This work concentrates on adviser's personality, his special knowledges. The most important part of the the work is adviser's scope of employment , solving problemes of pupils, cooperations with other teachers, with parents and selection of career.