

Abstract

Title: Attitudes of physical education teachers in martial arts

Goals: To find out the perspective of teachers in the martial arts, what is their relation to this problematic and if they would agree to include these activities in physical education program.

Methods: This is an empirical research, which will be used method of questioning by questionnaire.

Results: Results indicate what sports teachers think about combat sports and show if teachers attitude to these activities is rather positive or negative and why.

Key words: Attitudes, teachers, martial arts