

Abstrakt v anglickém jazyce

The work deals with activities related to the areas of cultural propaedeutics, pedagogy, physical education and other related subjects important for general development of personality of school-children and children in general. The author draws on long personal experience. The work aims to present the wider pedagogical community and also the general public one of ways to show children the cultural heritage of our country, teach them to value their own nation and form their own cultural identity.