

Summary:

This final thesis deals with creating of the ethical codex for parents or guardians as a tool for changing and adjusting of the communication between school and guardians. It focuses on the legislation concept of this relation and fields in which the relation occurs. The work concurrently brings a view of the ethical codex in education and problems of its role in the legal system. Some of its targets are to create and implement ethical codex from school's and parents' perspective. In the conclusion, the current knowledge is brought together and critical points of creation and implementation into individual schools are set.