

The diploma thesis is focused on multicultural education and its implementation into the Czech primary school system. Theoretical part deals with the concept of multicultural education, its base, multicultural environment, methods and approaches. Besides, it includes a comprehensive list of relevant resources. Practical part brings concrete project which was realized at fourth year of primary school.