

This Thesis is being specialized in a developing of intonation crafts at the elementary school. The criterions for an increase of intonation elements were being fixed after the analysis of methodical materials, afterwards the song's proposal for each class were being put together in accordance of these criterions. One song is being chosen for one class of the whole elementary school at the end of this Thesis and on this song is being demonstrated the subject for its training.