

My bachelor thesis deals with monitoring of giraffes group (mainly three members - male Johan, cow Berta and young cow Laura) in Prague zoological garden in the period from winter 2009 till spring 2010. Behavior of three chosen individuals is presented in the form of charts and graphs for better clarity. Overview of all Giraffidae Family, its description and living area, is included in the thesis.