

Abstract

The topic of the thesis is The Person of Arbitrator in International Commercial Arbitration. Arbitration has undergone a number of changes in recent years. This procedure is very popular not only for a choice of Arbitrator, but also for its speed and lower costs, as compared to the other methods of dispute resolution. In the work has been carefully analyzed the whole procedure from the viewpoint of an Arbitrator, especially his duties and powers. The amendment to Act No. 216/1994 Coll. - Act No. 19/2012 Coll., with effect from 1.4.2012 was to distinguish arbitration for consumer and without consumer. Part of the thesis are also proposals de lege ferenda.
