

ABSTRACT:

In this bachelor's thesis we deal with the issue of bullying. The basic concepts related to bullying are defined in the theoretical part. Empiric part goes about perception of bullying by the pupils of the second grade of grammar schools. The aim of this thesis was to find out, using a survey method, how pupils of the seventh and ninth grades of the selected grammar schools in Klatovsko perceive the issue of bullying.