

This study is divided into three sections. The first one devoted the broad issue of euthanasia, the second one to palliative care and third presents results of my empirical research work. The second part of this work discusses palliative medicine and hospice movement. The third part of the work brings results of my own research on this broad issue of euthanasia and hospice care that can be taken only as a sampler of the query problems.