

In this paper we looked through the Old Testament and focused on the Biblical passages describing temples. We observed the way people live, their religiosity, which had been changing with time. We disputed with scientists, biblists and critics about the significance of the temple for the evolution of Jewish religion.