

Mémoire de Master: „Dezentrierung: Versuch über die Kritische Theorie des Subjekts“
Étudiant: Daniel Pucciarelli (4ème Promotion)
Erasmus Mundus Europhilosophie

ABSTRACT:

The following investigation deals with the theory of subjectivity elaborated by Theodor W. Adorno throughout his philosophical career. This theory tries to construct a philosophical alternative to the notion of „object-constituting subjectivity“, which remains since Kant predominant at least in Germany. This investigation analyses this theory mainly concerning its possibilities for the foundation of a renewed concept of philosophical materialism.