

Cycling - history and analysis of 1 hour record.

Aim:

The theme of this work is to record driving for 1 hour, which is the most recognized record in the cycling sport. It aims to give a comprehensive picture of its history and sort out the best Attempts by the rules in force at the time.

A method:

When the work will be used for research materials available, given the literature and archive Mr. Chad. Record in riding 1hour in Czech literature only partially worked Pacino (1969). A comprehensive review of the official world record was elaborated in the book Velo Rekords (Belgium 1992). Both these publications, however, are outdated and even in one not mentioned Czech record. Since 1992 UCI (International Cycling Federation) twice changed rules for the recognition of the record, the work will be supplemented, organized and updated information on domestic and foreign professional magazines and websites.
