

Abstract

This thesis focuses on the topic of philosophy of education. The author of the work demonstrates to the readers connection between modern education and Plato's concept of care of psyche. This treatise consists of three parts. In the first part, we can find a lot of matters inquiring the essence of education, psyche, knowledge etc. The second part is an interpretation of . The third part demonstrates writer's experience with educational system and university. The main motive, of this thesis is the understanding of the world and myself, based on Plato's understanding of the psyche. My treatise describe Plato's care of the psyche the based on teaching a Czech philosopher Jan Patočka. The author of this work submitted an inspiration of a potential use of care about psyche in the philosophy of education.