Abstract

The aim of this thesis is a summary of the company Albertina icome Prague, its origins and achievements, which is written in awareness of the Czech Information Society since 1991 as an information broker specializing in library and information sector. Furthermore, the performance of its products and services that it provides as one of the foreign providers distribučorů EIR. In the final series, then a separate section on INFORUM conference, which is the organizer.