

The thesis, The testimony of the people who survived the Holocaust, is based on the authentic testimony of the Jews who were sent to concentration camps during the 2nd World War, their lives before the war and after the war are also presented in this thesis. Furthermore, the thesis describes the impact of this experience on their present lives.