The Master thesis „Sermons on a day of John Hus“ researchs sermons, which were preached on 6th July on a day of John Hus. It is dividend into six chapters. The introduction presents the character of the study. The second charter concerns with history of the day of John Hus. The third charter look into casual sermons and casual services. A service on a day of John Hus is a kind of casual services. The fourth charter deals with particular sermons. In the fifth charter there is composed an image of John Hus on the base of these sermons. In the final charter there is a comparison of sermons with casualistic’s requirement which were established in the third chapter.