

Abstrakt

This bachelor thesis deals with provision of speech prevention in kindergarten. The work includes the problematic of speech and the speech development of children, impact of sensual perception and movement abilities to the speech advancement. The work describes kindergarten and activities that are used in the kindergarten for speech therapy prevention. The aim of this work is to describe methods and forms of speech prevention used in kindergarten.

Key words: speech, speech development, language, communication, kindergarten, prevention of speech therapy