

Abstract

The theme of this paper is to compare the diet and drinking regime between competition tennis players and future teachers. The theoretical part deals with tennis history, historical and even contemporary achievements of all our tennis players. There is also described healthy food, drinking regime, healthy lifestyle and regimen.

The practical part deals with short introduction of surveyed tennis players and future teachers, descriptions of their eating habits and their comparisons.