

Abstract

The thesis deals with the employment issues of students studying the master's degree programme at Faculty of Arts at Charles University. Theoretical part of the thesis deals with main questions related to university education such as the system of university education, financial sources of university education, financial activities of the students, social inequality in university education and reform of university education.

Practical part of the thesis contains description of research method and its application. Main research method is a questionnaire, prepared for students studying the master programme of Faculty of Arts at Charles University. The final chapter contains results and conclusion of the research.

Keywords

Employment issues of students, university education system, reformation of the university education