

Abstract

The name of my thesis is The Crisis of Christian View of Family and the Role of the Catholic Church. The thesis may be divided into two thematic groups.

The first part deals with family from the perspective of Catholic Church, I describe on this place some fundamental documents.

The second part presents the interviews with my respondents and theirs view of this issue.

Furthermore, I try to throughout my work on the comparison of different perspectives on the family and the crisis.

And last but not least I use the research and facts that will help me to create a view on this without a significant problem.
