

Abstract

Bachelor work addresses construction history of the Castle in Světlá nad Sázavou. Describes in detail eventful history of preserved building, defines exterior of outer and courtyard frontispieces as well as castle grounds; interior of all rooms through all four floors up to close details including foremost valuable parget decorations. Introduces construction history of the building itself and surrounding gardens, defines historic and contemporary artistic values of the castle. Specifies most valuable details as well as blunt adaptations in 20th century. Integral part of the work is extensive photo documentation of individual rooms and described details, floor plans of historic and actual layout.

Keywords

architecture, castle, construction history, parget decorations, Světlá nad Sázavou