

Biowaste has recently been the main problem of waste management. The problem lies in biowaste landfill. During its decomposition leads to air pollution and potentially are at risk ground water.

This work deals with the quantity and quality of the produced biowaste and biowaste management.

Contemporary technologies and pilot projects are also presented.

Keys words: biowaste, quantity of biowaste, biowaste treatment