

Abstract

Subject of the thesis are Jewish institutions in Cracow, which are involved in the reconstruction of the Jewish Quarter of Kazimierz and the protection of Jewish heritage. The aim is to carry out basic mapping Jewish institutions and analyze their attendance. Furthermore thesis through SWOT analysis evaluates the overall organization and offered programs of researched Jewish institutions. Based on the available literature, the official web pages of individual institutions, the interviews with the staff conducted by the author and program materials were performed comprehensive mapping of Jewish institutions in Cracow and complex analysis.

Keywords

jewish institution, Kazimierz, jewish history, jewish culture, jewish heritage