Abstract

The question about the importance of the revolution experience of 1848/49 for the Bohemian conservative noblemen is the central point, which revealing is the main work’s intention. Based on the analysing of Count Leo Thun’s political brochures and concepts, the author attempts to demonstrate the relevance of the aristocratic confrontation with their own Pre-March patriotic activities in their next life and political strategies.

Key words

revolution of 1848/49

Leo Thun

aristocracy