Abstract

The bachelor’s thesis analyzes development of industry zone in Prague-Hostivař between period beginning around 1918 and finishing in the era of nationalization (with necessary chronological overlap to 1960). The work is based on study of archival materials of The state regional archive in Prague (SOA Praha) and The national film archive in Prague (NFA) and historical and contemporary scientific literature. Author’s aim was to describe the territory and specific cases compare to the economic and political context of the Czech lands and Czechoslovakia.

Keywords

Industry, Bohemia, 1918-1960, Prague-Hostivař