Průběh obhajoby: The chair of the defense committee welcomed the Defense Committee members, Dissertation Committee members, and students, introduced the candidate and the title of the thesis, and stated that all members of the defense committee were present and that all conditions for the defense required by the UK Study bylaws were fulfilled. The supervisor of the student, Prof. Jan Hanousek, introduced the candidate and her academic activity up to date, highly praising versatility and working habits of the student. The student presented the key results of her thesis. After the chair of the defense committee read out the referee reports the student reported on how the referees' comments were taken into account in the latest version of the thesis. Following that, the chair of the defense committee invited the auditorium to express their comments and questions. After a short discussion, the chair concluded the defense session and withdrew with the rest of the defense committee to a non-public meeting. The defense committee unanimously decided that Ms Anastasia Shamshur has successfully defended her thesis. Finally, the chair informed the candidate and the auditorium about this outcome.
