

Abstrakt (anglicky)

The topic of this bachelor thesis is the life, activity and work of the Czech librarian Josef Poch. The introduction presents Poch's life and work in general. Two chapters describe his work in the region Podbrdsko. His activities are mentioned in areas of librarianship, culture and adult education in this region. The third chapter is about Poch's work in the Town library in Beroun, whose history and development are also depicted here. Cultural and social life in the region is shown in the background of Poch's work. The last chapter reveals Poch's literary work and his influence in the Czech librarianship. Complete work is summarized in conclusion.