Abstract

This bachelor thesis deals with a find census at the nature reserve Nový rybník. The monitoring test has been done from March 2011 to November 2011. The data from research were compared with a results of the inventory done by dr. Boháč in 60’ and 70’ of 20. century

Key words: bird, pond, inventory, dominant species, abundance, frequency