

Abstract

Author: Michaela Kadeřábková

Department: Department of rehabilitation medicine

Title of the master thesis: Kinesiotherapy of patients with Parkinson's disease

Supervisor: Mgr. Pavlína Savková

Number of pages: 81

Number of attachments: 6

The year of presentation: 2012

Key words: Parkinson's disease, rehabilitation, tremor, rigidity

Bachelor thesis deals with in the theoretical part about the origin, clinical symptoms and especially the treatment of PD. The treatments focuses primarily on rehabilitation treatment and analyzes kinesitherapy and its possibilities. The practical part is devoted to treatment of patients who suffer from this disease. Kinesiotherapy in selected patients is concentrated on major problems and their physical shortcomings.