Welcome to Cardiff's Libraries

At our libraries we can offer you a world of knowledge and entertainment, from books to CDs to DVDs to Internet Access, community events and a whole universe of online services. If all this new technology is a bit scary, don't worry, you can still come in and read the paper while you wait for your bus.

We've got something for everyone:

- soft books for babies
- large print books if your eyes are on the wane
- foreign language books and newspapers
- trade journals
- historical archives

On these pages you will find details of our catalogue and online services which includes placing reservations, renewing your loans and managing your account online, plus access to our online resources.

Find out how to set up your account to enable you to renew and reserve items online, or renew or reserve items now.

The screenshot shows the Libraries NI website in Internet Explorer. The browser's address bar displays 'http://www.ni-libraries.net/welcome/'. The website has a purple and white color scheme. At the top, there is a navigation menu with links: Home, Libraries, Services, Your Library, Online/Virtual Library, Events, Get a Library Card, News, eBooks/Audiobooks, Catalogue & loans/requests, and About Libraries NI. Below the navigation is a search bar and a sidebar with a list of links: Welcome, Public Consultations, Free Internet Access, Free Membership, Feedback, Personal Portal - Login, Site Tips, One Chapter More Blog, and Irish History Reading List. The main content area features a large banner for 'CURRICULUM SUPPORT COLLECTIONS EXAMS LOOMING? NEED SOME HELP?' with bullet points and a list of participating libraries: BALLYMENA, BANGOR CARNEGIE, BELFAST CENTRAL, CARRICKFERGUS, DERRY CENTRAL, ENNISKILLEN, LISBURN CITY, NEWRY, and OMAGH. Below the banner is a 'Welcome to Libraries NI' section, a 'Latest News Updates' section with several news items, and a 'Social Media' section with links to Twitter and Facebook. The footer contains site map, contact details, and copyright information.
