

Annotation:

The work focuses on the history of women in the 19th and 20 century. Based on a unique source, Albin Honzáková memory and preserved records, such as extensive correspondence and publications. The thesis describes the history of girls' education and related associations, but associations that participated in the gradual emancipation of the public.

Keywords:

Memoirs, everyday reality, 19th and 20th century, womens, feminism, education, clubs