

The aim of this diploma work is to find out the role of the connection between art and media education in education and to outline a suitable didactic proposal which is substantiated on theoretical basis.