

The theme of my thesis is “Ways of labour relation termination”. The topic is concerning every person who works as an employee or as an employer employs others. There is evidence that this topic is still current in rich practise of courts on all levels of the court system, including the Supreme court of the Czech republic.

I describe and analyse all legal ways of termination of employment relationship and compare the Czech legal regulation of termination of relationship with the Slovak one. In the end of my thesis I describe changes in the area of employment relationship termination which are prepared by Czech lawmakers these days.
