

Main task of bachelor diploma work is systematical study of communications nets around Svojanov castle near Polička. Principal method is a systematical research of field road relicts, their mapping with GPS system, documentation and interpretation. The results of research are connected with study of historical settlement in this region.