

annotation:

This work defines mistake and types of mistake, describes teacher's work with mistake in education with using informations from literature. One part of the work is questionnaire which shows how teachers work with mistake. This questionnaire was sent to teachers and responses were obtained in the period march - may 2011. Information from teachers and also from papers are included to the example of procedure how teachers can work with mistake. One part of the work is resumption of literature and papers about czech language especially for deaf.